A Special Invitation to UGA® Alumni & Friends,

Immerse yourself in the intoxicating, colorful culture and history of southern Spain! We'll make our home for the week in a first-class, modern parador in Antequera, surrounded by varied countryside scenery with La Peña de los Enamorados, los Luxures, Frigiliana, and the distance of Málaga. From there, we’ll embark on daily excursions to discover Andalucía’s unique heritage, a blending of Moorish and Catholic religious influence.

You’ll be treated with awe at the beauty of the Moors: the courtyards and fountains of the Alhambra in Granada; the iconic red and white arches of La Maquinita in Córdoba; and the imposing Alcázar in Sevilla.

Other memorable moments await you: a stroll down the bougainvillea-lined streets of Seville’s historic quarter, the breathtaking panoramic views of the Sierra Nevada de Algeciras; and an impassioned flamenco performance. To help you fully appreciate Andalucía’s history and culture during your journey, our travel planners have meticulously selected knowledgeable local guides and built in a program of insightful lectures. You’ll also enjoy the fellowship of traveling in a small group while still having ample opportunities to explore on your own. Best of all, your very capable, professional travel director will take care of the details so that you can focus on savoring Andalucía’s delights. Join us in southern Spain by reaping today!

If you have specific questions about this program, flight arrangements, special requests, or similar, please contact AHI Travel at 800-323-7373.

A World Apart
Experience the spirit and romance of southern Spain and make new friends with fellow travelers and lecturers, whose regional expertise shines in their insider stories. The story begins with our commitment to delivering authentic travel experiences that allow you to craft an individual experience.

Day 1 | Ronda
Depart your gateway city by flight to Seville, Spain. Transfer by coach to Ronda, a town that has been designated a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Check in to the Parador de Antequera.

Day 2 | Antequera
Spend the day exploring the ancient city. Marvel at the striking prehistoric architecture of the Menga and Viera dolmens. Imagine the striking vertical stones that form the walls of the Antequera Dolmens Site. Visit the Sierra de Torcal, where nature plays a starring role in the formation of high limestone pillars and massive caves. Continue on to the city of Antequera, a cultural crossroads. Begin at the Alcazaba, the fortress that guarded the city, and admire sweeping vistas within the courtyards and arcaded walkways that once served as the city's defense system, and stroll through the manicured gardens of Generalife, the summer palace. Conclude with lunch at the lovely Iglesia de Santa María la Mayor.

Day 3 | Seville
Spend the day exploring Seville. See the ancient remains of the Roman bridge, and walk through the atmospheric Jewish quarter. Immerse yourself in the magnetic ambience. Visit the Giralda bell tower, Seville's largest Gothic church. Next, tour the splendid Mezquita, whose construction was begun in the 8th century and completed in the 12th century. Today it serves as a cathedral and mosque. Complete your day with a visit to the Guggenheim Museum.

Day 4 | Granada
Explore the Alhambra and the Moorish Renaissance performance. An ancient fortress that was transformed into a royal palace, the Alhambra is one of the most famous landmarks in the world. Visit the Generalife, the Alhambra's palaces and gardens. See the central court, the Hurtado de Moratín Courtyard, the Charola de los Reyes, the Court of the Lions and the Court of the Myrtles. Visit the coat of arms of the Nasrid kings and a stunning mix of Christian and Islamic architectural styles in the Granada Cathedral, the second largest Gothic cathedral in the world. Enjoy a farewell dinner at a local restaurant.

Day 5 | Ronda
Spend another day exploring the region. Visit the lovely Iglesia de Santa María la Mayor. Step inside the bullfighting arena, De Toros, first opened in 1785, and delve into the history of this sport. Walk along the walls of the old town. Visit the Casa de San Juan Bosco.

Day 6 | Málaga
Enjoy a free day to explore as you wish. You can also opt to take a complimentary, round-trip shuttle to Málaga and make your own arrangements for the day. For additional information, please see our itinerary for more details.

Beyond Antequera and the Moorish Renaissance
Explore the dramatic medieval city of Antequera, an off-the-beaten-path gem. Immerse yourself in the atmosphere of the Jewish quarter. Of all the places we visited on this trip, Ronda was my favorite.
