Included Excursions

Welcome to New York City! See the highlights of the Big Apple during a narrated tour. Along the way, your guide provides personal insights into life in the Big Apple. Pause at the World Trade Center Memorial to view the poignant reflective pools, twin pools that honor the lives lost and the sacrifices made by the citizens of New York City.

Hudson River Maritime Museum. This fascinating museum, founded in 1980, focuses on the preservation and research of artifacts related to the Hudson River. View exhibits about historic vessels, art and materials from the transportation industry while exploring the museum at your own pace.

Elective Excursions

West Point

Guided West Point Tour. Tour the campus of the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, which has trained Army officers since 1802. See the Cadet Chapel and view Trophy Point and other landmarks.

Catskill

Olana. Often called the most beautiful artist's home in America, Olana is built high on a hill. Tour the house and grounds, viewing richly decorated rooms, paintings and collections.

Thomas Cole National Historic Site. Discover the world of the man who became the father of American landscape painting and founder of the Hudson River School of Art. Tour the house, viewing the historic rooms where the Cole family lived.

Albany

Historic Troy. Join a local historian for a walking tour of Troy. Witness the town's Victorian architecture and learn how these remarkable structures are preserved over time.

Lock and Dam Cruise. Learn about the lock and dam system used on the Erie Canal, originally built to create a water route from New York City to the Atlantic Ocean to the Great Lakes. While on tour, gain insight into the trade season and steamboats.

Albany. Discover Albany's rich history during a tour that includes visits to the New York State Capital Building and the New York State Museum.

Kingston

Kingston Exploration. Discover historic Kingston, New York's first capital, which was burned by the British in 1777. Visit the Old Dutch Church, founded in 1659, and view a hand-written letter from Washington.

Walkway Over the Hudson. Delight in breathtaking views while strolling over the Hudson on a covered bridge. Once a railroad path, the bridge has been transformed into the world's longest, elevated pedestrian bridge.

FDR Home and Museum Tour. Walk in the footsteps of President Roosevelt at Springwood, one of America's great historic homes that is filled with the family's memorabilia, including an extensive display of the President's paintings and his collection of political cartoons. Then explore the FDR Presidential Library & Museum on a self-guided tour.

Sleepy Hollow

Lyndhurst. Visit this Gothic Revival mansion designed by Alexander Jackson Davis in 1838. The historic estate, which overlooks the Hudson River, features an impressive collection of Victorian decorative arts.

Sunnyside. Tour the riverside home that has charmed generations, and hear about Washington Irving's storied past, his life and his writing. While touring Sunnyside, bask in fabled anecdotes of Irving's life and inspirations for his iconic literary characters.

Elective excursions available at an additional cost.
