Discovery

AHI Connects: Calvados. The region’s famous apple cider brandy is among the world’s finest brandies. Visit a traditional distillery set among 42 acres of apple orchards. Savor lunch, then sip a glass of smooth Calvados in this idyllic setting.

Historic Honfleur. Explore this quaint French port town and savor the maritime ambience of its scenic old harbor. See Honfleur’s historic landmarks, including the wooden Church of Sainte-Cathérine, crafted by 15th-century shipbuilders.

D-Day and the Battle of Normandy. See Arramanches, site of one of the offshore mulberry harbors. Walk on Omaha Beach, where U.S. forces valiantly advanced across the heavily fortified shoreline under devastating fire to overcome German troops. Pay tribute to the fallen during a poignant visit to the Normandy American Cemetery. Then, visit Pointe du Hoc, where U.S. Rangers courageously scaled 100-foot cliffs to destroy enemy artillery emplacements, and go inside a German defensive emplacement.

Mont-Saint-Michel. For centuries, pilgrims have made their way to the spectacular abbey perched atop Mont-Saint-Michel, a tiny, granite tidal island off the Normandy coast. On a guided tour, explore this singular island that has served as a fortress, monastery and prison, and step inside the tranquil abbey church.

Caen Memorial Museum. France’s premier World War II museum offers intriguing exhibits, photos and videos about World War II, the D-Day landings and the Battle of Normandy.

Bayeux. View the 200-foot-long Bayeux Tapestry, which depicts more than 50 scenes of William the Conqueror and the Battle of Hastings in 1066. Then visit Bayeux’s cathedral and admire its fine Gothic details.

Enrichment

The French Resistance. Learn about the Resistance’s origins, its leaders and the heroic efforts of the French patriots who fought to liberate their country.

D-Day and the Battle of Normandy. Discuss the role that Normandy and its citizens played during this crucial period of the Allied war effort.
