DISCOVERY

Westport. Get acquainted with your new home base on a walking tour.

National Museum of Ireland—Country Life. Explore engaging exhibits that reveal the heritage of Irish trades, farming, crafts, domestic life and more.

Westport House. Step back in time as you wander through beautifully decorated period rooms in this stately, 18th-century manor house, and learn the legend of Westport’s pirate queen.

Lissadell House. Tour this elegant, Greek Revival manor, the former home of Constance Markievicz, a zealous Irish nationalist and humanitarian, as well as the first woman elected to the British Parliament, whom Eamon de Valera lauded as “the friend of the toiler, the lover of the poor.”

Megalithic Ireland. Visit Ireland’s largest Stone Age burial site, the otherworldly Carrowmore Megalithic Cemetery. Contemplate what life must have been like for Ireland’s ancient inhabitants as you gaze at monuments they constructed over 5,000 years ago.

Ireland’s Rugged Beauty. On Achill Island, the largest island off Ireland’s coast, admire majestic, wild beauty and pristine beaches. Visit the Deserted Village at Slievemore, a haunting reminder of Ireland’s pastoral history.

Connemara. Marvel at this starkly beautiful landscape shaped by glaciers and see Croagh Patrick Mountain. Along your route, visit a family-owned farm for a sheepdog demonstration. Then journey to Kylemore Abbey, a romantic, 19th-century castle overlooking a serene lake, for a tour of the home and gardens. Continue to charming Clifden, set amid the Twelve Bens mountains.

Cong. Visit this picturesque village, the backdrop for the 1952 movie, “The Quiet Man,” and stroll through its lovely Augustinian abbey grounds.

Galway. This spirited city exudes a youthful energy. With an expert guide, take a culinary walking tour to visit local artisans, such as chocolatiers, cheese makers and craft brewers, to sample their tasty creations. Later, explore the network of medieval cobbled streets on your own.

ENRICHMENT

Irish Folklife. Delve into the traditions of rural life in Ireland.

W.B. Yeats. Learn about the poetry and life of William Butler Yeats during a presentation by a Yeats Society Fellow.

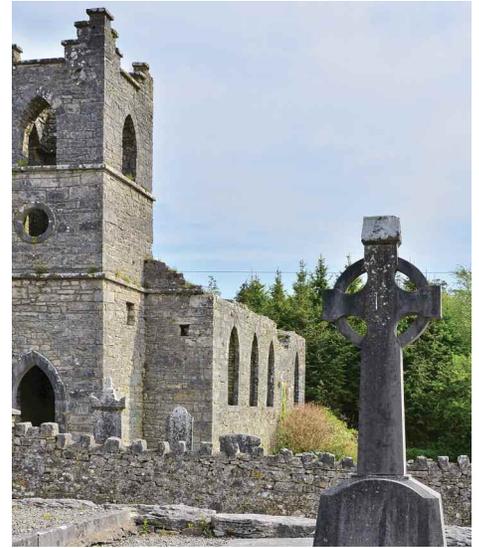

A Vision of Ireland. A local artist and art history lecturer shares how Irish culture and history are portrayed in the works of the country’s major artists.
