Admire its medieval Marchesale Arch, wend the Old Town's cobbled streets and inhale the fragrance of flowering plants and freshly baked goods. Peek inside artisans' workshops, and experience the warm hospitality of local residents.

The Heart of Apulia. Alberobello captivates visitors with its enigmatic trulli dwellings. Explore the site with a guide, then traverse the Apulian countryside to a local winery in Locorotondo. Then enjoy a tasting of wine made from Puglian white grapes and enjoy the countryside retreat over a light lunch. Continue to Martina Franca, the heart of Apulia, to wander narrow lanes and walk beneath the marvelous Porto Santo Stefano.

Trani and Olive Oil. Admire medieval Trani, an ancient port with a stunning seafront cathedral and a historic Jewish quarter built of white stone. Travel to the countryside to tour a family-run olive mill, sample freshly pressed oils and enjoy lunch. Then gather with the staff or owners to discuss life in Italy.
