Discovery

AHI Connects: Calligraphy and Cuisine. Uncover the ancient tradition of calligraphy during a lesson with an expert. Then taste treats and learn about Morocco's colorful spices, herbs and more during a culinary tour through the main square and souks. Cap off your discovery with a special cooking class!

The Red City. Explore the old medina, beginning at the 14th-century Ben Youssef Medrasa, noted for its lattice-work and interior décor. Stroll through the winding souks, passing merchants selling textiles, leather, jewelry and spices, and experience the vast Jemaa el-Fnaa square where locals, travelers and traders have gathered for centuries. Continue to Dar El Bacha Palace, which boasts a fine display of woodwork.

Gardens and Monuments. Witness the Jardin Majorelle, a botanical oasis designed by French painter Jacques Majorelle. Nearby, visit the Yves Saint Laurent Museum and marvel at its impressive facade and collection of haute couture. Step into the Bahía Palace, home to a lush Moorish-style garden, and witness the towering minaret of the iconic Koutoubia Mosque.

Atlas Mountains. Journey through a captivating landscape into the foothills of the Atlas Mountains. At a traditional Berber village, gain insight into the history and culture of the Berbers, the original inhabitants of North Africa. Join a local family for traditional mint tea and tafernout, a delicious Berber bread. Later, enjoy lunch with a stunning view.

Moroccan Feast. Gather to savor Moroccan cuisine accompanied by the ancient music of the Berbers.

Casablanca. Witness the city's elegant buildings and Art Deco architecture. See the Place Mohammed V and gaze at the striking Hassan II Mosque. Overlooking the Atlantic, this place of worship is an architectural wonder with exquisite details, fine carvings and colorful tiling.

Rabat. See the elaborate Royal Palace and thrill to the spectacular Hassan Tower. Stroll through Kasbah of the Udayas. Perched over the ocean, this neighborhood's colorful streets hold the story of Rabat's pirate past. See the Mausoleum of Mohammed V and explore the Chellah necropolis, ancient, medieval ruins on the edge of the city.

Enrichment

Moroccan History. From the Berber dynasty to modern day Morocco, gain insight into the fascinating history of this remarkable country.

Moroccan Culture. Learn how a blend of Arab, European and African influences, religions and traditions created Morocco's captivating culture.
