Life on Safari

Surrounded by wildlife, on-the-ground specialists from the vendors listed below create a safe, comfortable, and unforgettable experience for you and your fellow travelers. Each of the five regions in this safari is unique, offering a diverse range of wildlife and scenery that will make you feel like you’re on a once-in-a-lifetime adventure.

Botswana

This private game reserve is home to the Big Five: lion, elephant, leopard, Cape buffalo and rhino. As the sun peeks over the horizon, climb into your safari vehicle, which has stadium seating for up to 22 passengers and a rooftop observation deck. With an expert tracker leading the way, see elephants who make their home here. During your game drive, you are sure to see several herds of elephants wandering the plains or stopping by a water hole to drink. You’ll also see lions, leopards, giraffe, impala and baboons in their natural habitat, and watch the drama of their day-to-day struggle for survival.

Zimbabwe

Thornybush Nature Reserve | South Africa

This 24,000-acre private reserve is home to the Big Five and a myriad of other wildlife. Drakensberg Mountains and other adjacent mountains provide a stunning backdrop for this pristine nature reserve. The reserve’s lush green river valleys and the grassy plains are home to a diverse range of wildlife, including giraffes, buffalo, elephants, leopards, hyenas, cheetahs, lions and more.

Victoria Falls

Victoria Falls | Zimbabwe

“Discovered” in 1855 by Dr. David Livingstone, the great cascade was called Mosi-oa-Tunya, “the smoke that thunders.” In 1580, English navigator Sir Frances Drake sailed past this island. It is known as the “smoke that thunders,” and the mist rises as high as 700 feet. The Zambezi River’s thundering roar is said to be heard from five miles away.

Hwange National Park | Zimbabwe

This national park is home to the Big Five: lion, elephant, leopard, Cape buffalo and rhino. As the sun peeks over the horizon, climb into your safari vehicle, which has stadium seating for up to 22 passengers and a rooftop observation deck. With an expert tracker leading the way, see elephants who make their home here. During your game drive, you are sure to see several herds of elephants wandering the plains or stopping by a water hole to drink. You’ll also see lions, leopards, giraffe, impala and baboons in their natural habitat, and watch the drama of their day-to-day struggle for survival.

Chobe National Park | Botswana

This national park is one of the largest in Africa and is home to all five of the Big Five: lion, elephant, leopard, Cape buffalo and rhino. As the sun peeks over the horizon, climb into your safari vehicle, which has stadium seating for up to 22 passengers and a rooftop observation deck. With an expert tracker leading the way, see elephants who make their home here. Spend a night in a tent under the stars, Africa, Zimbabwe.

Surround yourself in the peaceful tranquility of the African bush. A two-night journey aboard a luxury train will take you from Cape Town to Victoria Falls, where you can enjoy the fast-paced lifestyle. If tranquil Cape Town is the country’s oldest city, Johannesburg is its financial center, and many people come here to enjoy the fast-paced lifestyle. Joburg, as it is often called, is the country’s financial center, and many people come here to enjoy the fast-paced lifestyle.

Victoria Falls | Zimbabwe

Until the 19th century, the Zambezi River’s thundering roar was heard from five miles away. It is known as the “smoke that thunders,” and the mist rises as high as 700 feet. The Zambezi River’s thundering roar is said to be heard from five miles away.

Soweto

Soweto | South Africa

Soweto began as a shantytown built to house the prisoners of a prison. From their remote prison, these prisoners helped build Soweto, the city of Nelson Mandela. South Africa’s first black president, Nelson Mandela and his political descendants, is from this suburb of Johannesburg.

Cape Town

Cape Town | South Africa

Surrounded by a beautiful coastline and stunning mountains, Cape Town is a must-see destination for any traveler. A bustling port city, it is the gateway to the Table Mountain National Park and is home to the most beautiful and diverse wildlife in the world. A visit to the Cape of Good Hope is a must-do activity. Cape Town is one of the most popular destinations in Africa, and it is easy to see why.

Cape Town | South Africa

A tour of the Cape Winelands is a must-do activity. This region is home to some of the most beautiful vineyards in the world, and it is easy to see why. The vineyards are surrounded by beautiful mountains and valleys, and the scenery is breathtaking.

The story of travel involves more than a stack of ticket stubs, it includes the warm memories that are etched in the heart. These memories are the stories of your life, the stories that you will pass on to the next generation. This is how Franschhoek fits into the rhythm of life in southern Africa, adding another memorable chapter to the rich story of your life.

Gain from expert guides and lecturers, who call this area home. The incomparable value of your journey lies in the personalized gain from expert guides and lecturers, who call this area home. A three-night journey with Rovos Rail, the Pride of Africa, will provide this opportunity to experience Africa’s oldest city.

Cape Town is South Africa’s Mother City and is considered to have the most diverse range of architectural styles of any city in the world. Sheltered by Table Mountain, South Africa’s “Light of the Sun,” Cape Town is “Where the Sun sets and the world begins.” This is where the Cape Dutch influence of the 17th and 18th centuries meets the Cape Arabic influence of the 19th century. The area around Table Mountain has been a gathering place for indigenous peoples for thousands of years. In 1652, the Dutch East India Company established a trading post and settlers from the Cape began to live on the plateau. The city was founded in 1662.

Each day on safari begins with new discoveries. You will be on the prowl for breakfast as the nocturnal residents wrap up a night of hunting. Return to the lodge for a hearty breakfast and time at leisure. On this luxury safari, discover the landscapes of the Cape Peninsula, Therson National Park, Victoria Falls, and more.

A World Apart

The story of travel involves more than a ticket and a passport. The story is about the people you meet, the places you see, the experiences you have. It is about the world you experience. It is about the people you meet. While we cannot control the world, we can control how we experience it. We can choose to see the world as it is, or as we imagine it to be. We can choose to see the world as a cold, hard, unforgiving place, or as a warm, welcoming haven. We can choose to see the world as a place of conflict and division, or as a place of peace and harmony. We can choose to see the world as a place of poverty and despair, or as a place of hope and possibility. September 27 – December 12, 2023
Dear EXPLORERS and Friends,

You have taken the time to encourage and support Alumni Travel, and we hope you are excited about what is in store for you on your trip to South Africa. Our itinerary is designed to introduce you to the rich culture and history of this fascinating country, as well as to provide you with a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to see some of the most beautiful landscapes on Earth. We are proud to offer you a trip that combines cultural exploration with opportunities for adventure and relaxation, all in the company of new friends and experienced travel directors.

Let us arrange your flights

As a travel company, we are committed to providing our clients with the best possible experience. That is why we have arranged for you to fly from your gateway city to South Africa and back, with transfers to and from the airport in Johannesburg. This will allow you to focus on enjoying your trip rather than worrying about transportation.

Optional excursions

On this trip, we offer a variety of optional excursions that you can choose to participate in at your own discretion. These include tours to Cape Town, the Cape Peninsula, and the Garden Route, as well as excursions to Victoria Falls and the Kruger National Park. You can choose to participate in as many or as few of these as you like.

Accommodations

We have chosen carefully selected accommodations for your comfort and convenience. All of our hotels and lodges are located in areas that offer stunning views and easy access to the sights and sounds of the region.

Travel expenses

The cost of your trip includes all flights, accommodations, transportation, and meals, as well as all taxes and fees. You will be responsible for any additional expenses that you incur, such as tips, drinks, and personal expenses.

Program dates

The program runs from September 27 to October 12, 2023. Please make sure to arrive in South Africa on the first day of the program, as the trip will begin at 1:00 PM on September 27.

We hope you will join us on this journey, and we look forward to seeing you in South Africa soon.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
