Copenhagen

Discovery

Rosenborg Castle. Enter the 400-year-old Renaissance palace where Danish monarchs once held court, and admire the brilliant crown jewels, royal portraits and elegant furnishings.

Canals of Copenhagen. Cruise along the waterways that weave through the city, past Amalienborg Palace, the Danish royal family's home; the Little Mermaid statue; the Opera House; and the distinctive Black Diamond library.

Copenhagen, Past and Present. See the city through the eyes of its famous residents, including storyteller Hans Christian Andersen, as you meander amid quaint streets and hidden squares.

Oslo. Visit Holmenkollen Ski Jump, the impressive slope used in the 1952 Winter Olympics. In the nearby Ski Museum, discover Norway's 4,000-year history of Nordic and downhill skiing. Continue to Vigeland Park, filled with more than 200 sculptures by renowned artist Gustav Vigeland.

Nordic Seafarers. At the Viking Ship Museum, study the beautifully preserved longships up close. Head to the Kon-Tiki Museum to see the famed vessels of Norwegian explorer Thor Heyerdahl.

Bergen Railway. Travel to Bergen on Europe's highest altitude railway and one of the most scenic routes in the world. Relish breathtaking views as you travel across the Hardangervidda, a plateau at more than 4,000 feet above sea level.

Bergen. Framed by seven hills and seven fjords, Bergen was a major trading hub of the Hanseatic League in the late Middle Ages. Explore the maritime merchants' warehouses in Bryggen, the old wharf. View King Haakon's Hall, Rosenkrantz Tower and St. Mary's Church. Tour the country home of the revered composer Edvard Grieg.

The Best of Norway. Revel in some of Norway's most dazzling scenery. Take the Bergen Railway to Myrdal, then thrill to one of the world's steepest train rides on board the Flåm Railway. Snake past snow-dusted peaks and through mountain tunnels to the pristine Aurlandsfjord, a branch of the Sognefjord, Norway's longest fjord. Cruise to Gudvangen, then explore the Voss district, where vistas of mountains, forests, lakes and waterfalls await you!

Enrichment

Scandinavia Today. Discuss the current events shaping contemporary Denmark and Norway.

The Fjords of Norway. Understand the crucial role of the beautiful fjords in Nordic geological and cultural history.
