Dear Alumni, Parents, and Friends,

We invite you to be among the thousands of Cornell alumni, parents, and friends who view the Cornell Alumni Association (CAA) Travel Program as their first choice for memorable travel adventures. If you’ve traveled with CAA before, you know to expect excellent travel experiences in some of the world’s most interesting places. If our travel offerings are new to you, you’ll want to take a closer look at our upcoming trip.

Working closely with some of the world’s most highly-regarded travel companies, CAA trips are not only well organized, safe, and a great value, they are filled with remarkable people. This year, as we face for more than forty years, are delighting us in the United States and around the globe.

Whether you’re embarking on a grand tour by sail, exploring the smallest streets of a ‘redhead town,’ hiking a trail on a remote mountain pass, or lounging poolside on one of our luxury cruises, we guarantee an extraordinary journey in great company.

And that’s the reason so many Cornellians return, year after year, to travel with the Cornell Alumni Association. If you, like us, simply can’t wait for your next travel adventure, we encourage you to register today for this or another of our remarkable travel offerings.

Warmly,

Alumni Affairs

The story of travel involves more than a flight and a passport. We want to weave together discovery, education, and humanity - the best elements of any compelling tale. Your personal travel story begins with our commitment to delivering authentic experiences with local people.

The incomparable value of your journey lies in the personalized care you receive from your Travel Director and the knowledge you gain about one of Spain's most independent-minded regions. In many Catalans think of their region as a land of beauty, heritage and history:

• Gràcia Village. A neighborhood of quiet streets and plazas, filled with a wonderful array of cozy cafés, art galleries, independent shops and Gaudí’s most intimate works.
• The Ramblas. This street is known for its prime location near the Passeig de Gràcia. It is ideally situated for shopping, dining and sightseeing.
• La Sagrada Familia, Antoni Gaudí’s century church in the Catalán Gothic style. It is the largest church in the world and is recognized together as a UNESCO World Heritage site. Visit his basilica and the Plaça de Sant Felip Neri.
• El Born. The heart of the old city, Boquer Market, Girona’s Jewish community. Later, travel to Figueres, the hometown of surrealist Dali, home to the town’s Jewish community.
• Castle of Púbol, Dali’s second house, Casa Vicens. Locals regard it as Gaudí’s first house, Casa Vicens. Locals regard it as

We invite you to be among the thousands of Cornell alumni, parents and friends who see the Comell Alumni Association (CAA) Travel Program as their first choice for memorable travel adventures.

If you’ve traveled with CAA before, you know to expect excellent travel experiences in some of the world’s most interesting places. If our travel offerings are new to you, you’ll want to take a closer look at our upcoming trips. Working closely with some of the world’s most highly-respected travel companies, CAA trips are not only well organized, safe, and a great value, they are filled with remarkable people. This year, as we look forward to more than forty years, we are offering destinations in the United States and around the globe.

Whether you’re traveling around a world by sail, exploring the oldest streets of a ‘medieval town’, taking a train on a remote mountain pass, or lounging poolside on one of our luxury cruises, we guarantee an extraordinary journey in great company.

And that’s the reason why Cornellians return year after year to travel with the Cornell Alumni Association. If you, like us, simply can’t wait for your next travel adventure, we encourage you to register today for this or another of our remarkable travel offerings.

Warmly,

Alumni Affairs

AIR TRANSPORTATION

- Baggage restrictions vary according to the airline policy and the class of service flown. Details will be provided with your pre-departure information.

BAGGAGE

- Excess baggage charges for additional or oversized/overweight pieces are expensive and not included in your trip price; plan accordingly.

Fees for passports and, if applicable, visas; entry/departure fees; personal gratuities; laundry and dry cleaning; excursions, wines, liquors, mineral waters and meals not mentioned in this brochure under included features; travel insurance; airport transfer costs for those not participating in AHI’s FlexAir; all items of a strictly personal nature are the responsibility of the participant. CANCELLATION OF TRIP OPTIONS—Purchases of optional excursions, trip extensions and additional hotel nights become fully non-refundable 45 days prior to departure. Air transportation and private transfer purchases are subject only to penalties assessed by the airlines and transfer suppliers.

CANCELLATION

- AHI Travel and the Sponsoring Association do not own or operate any entity which provides goods or services for this program, and act only as agents for the inclusions in the program.

- The AHI Travel Passenger Protection Plan offers an $85,000 per person fare refund if the trip is cancelled for any reason. Participants are responsible for any costs and charges associated with changes or cancellations.

- Should a student or faculty member become incapacitated for any reason, participants shall have no claim other than for a full refund. By forwarding the deposit, the passenger certifies that he/she has no physical, mental or other condition of any nature which incapacitates him/her or may create a hazard for himself/herself or other passengers and accepts the terms of this contract set out herein and in more specific pre-departure passenger information. The airlines and other transportation companies concerned are not to be held responsible for any act, omission, or event, during the time passengers are not on board their conveyances. The passage contract in use, when issued, shall constitute the sole contract between the company(ies) and the passenger and/or purchaser of this trip.
