Land Program dates: June 18-29, 2020

The Washington University Alumni and Friends will be embarking on a unique adventure to Tanzania, featuring the Plains of the Serengeti. This trip offers an opportunity to witness some of the most biodiverse areas in the world, providing you with an up-close view of over 300 species of wild animals across picturesque landscapes. At the close of each unforgettable viewing, you will be in the capable care of a local professional lecturer, ready to guide you through the region.

Washington University Alumni and Friends will be staying at The African Tulip in Arusha and at the deluxe Ngorongoro Oldeani Area at the Ngorongoro O’ldeani. The trip includes luxurious accommodations in the Serengeti National Park, including Welcome and Farewell Dinners. The Extensive Meal Program is designed to offer guests a variety of authentic cuisine, including Welcome and Farewell Dinners, plus local flavors, free time to pursue your own interests, and opportunities to sample authentic cuisine and hospitality.

P.S. The Washington University Travel Committee strongly recommends that you purchase travel insurance. You may want to speak with your personal insurance provider about what additional coverage you need for your trip. For a list of recommended companies, visit us at: travel.wustl.edu
